With a forecast that the World's soil will be dust in 60 years, what has to change?

How can we look after our soil and keep producing food globally, nationally & in our own gardens?

Can soil be part of the solution to global warming & climate change?

This talk will be of interest to farmers, growers, allotment holders, gardeners and anyone with an interest in how we feed the World in the future.

PACT
Penrith Action for Community Transition

www.penrithact.org.uk

Cumbria Organic Gardeners & Farmers

www.penrithact.org.uk/cogf

'The Magic of Soil'

An illustrated Talk by visiting Professor Phil Gregory
University of British Columbia

Wednesday 24th October

7.00 (coffee) for 7.30 - 9.00pm

The Lecture Theatre, Newton Rigg College, Penrith

Admission £3 including coffee and biscuits
(free to Students)

Co- hosted by: PACT (Penrith Action for Community Transition)
Cumbria Organic Gardeners & Farmers
Newton Rigg College (part of Askham Bryan College)

Contact: Joan Robinson, PACT & Penrith Community Gardener 07754773701 joan@randjrob.net
Kath Halfpenny, Cumbria Organic Gardeners & Farmers 016974 75309

AN AMAZING OPPORTUNITY- PLEASE HELP TO SPREAD THE WORD!